

Aly Indermühle – Textured Light August 5th – August 20th, 2017

OPENING

Tuesday, 8 August 2017 | 6 – 8pm

Textured Light is a serial presentation of vertically oriented wall-mounted light boxes. The boxes barely contain the party within - nebulous bands of moving coloured light under a variety of superimposed textures introduce an unexpected element of tactility. Varied in effect, the textures on display in this exhibition come from found objects, however these are no ordinary objects – peacock plumes, white mink, pearls and Japanese fibre paper are exotic and luxurious objects of desire. They are distinctly feminine and associated with adornment and clothing. As well as their tactile quality, the textures lend the works a sense of warmth, intimacy - and fun - not usually associated with light work, which can have a sanitised quality. Exhibited as boxes of glowing textures these elegant wall-bound lights have an architectural quality, akin to a votive niche, small window or other aperture. This seems appropriate as the works offer viewers a glimpse into another sensorial world.

.M Contemporary is a gallery space that aims to create a cross-cultural conversation through exhibiting and supporting emerging and established artists from around the world. Since opening in Sydney in 2013, we have aimed to foster a strong appreciation for a new generation of Australian artists and to expose them to a wide audience of both novice and established collectors.

.M Contemporary has a strong focus on supporting these artists' ongoing presence through regular exhibitions and participation in international and local art fairs. We see ourselves as progressive, diverse and all-encompassing, a place where artists are nurtured and supported while being exposed to a far-reaching yet astute audience.
